

BIG FOUR SEE PLOT TO END 8 HOUR DAY
Rail Unions Say Alton Plea to Labor Board Is Backed by All Roads.
FIGHT OPENS AT HEARING
Brotherhood Chiefs Massed at Chicago to Battle Move to Finish.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—A fight in which the railroad eight hour day is said to be at stake was begun before the United States Railroad Labor Board here today. A petition from the Chicago and Alton Railroad, now in the hands of a receiver, for certain revisions in the working hours of train service employees is technically the question before the board. Representatives of the "Big Four" brotherhoods, however, believe that the Alton is beginning what may become a concerted attack on the eight hour day.

The Alton wants to eliminate excess pay for overtime in freight, transfer and hostler service, extend the suburban service workday from eight hours in ten to ten hours in twelve and modify in several ways the working schedules in outlying switching yards.

The brotherhoods, according to their spokesmen at the hearing, will fight the Alton petition to a finish. They believe the road has the backing of the whole railroad group and that the case will be followed by others if it is successful.

Gompers Hits Move by Alton; Demands That Rail Board Go.
Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor took another fling today at the railroad labor board.

"The request of the Chicago and Alton Railroad for abolition of the eight hour day and the establishment of a ten hour day with no time and a half for overtime," he said in a statement to the press, "is an indication of the confidence the railroads have in the railroad labor board."

Notes of the Stage.

"The visit of thirty-two Lithuanians to last night's performance of 'Better Times' marked the forty-second racial group out of the total of sixty groups in the Hippodrome and Morosco's production of 'The Lithuanians' is the last of the series."

Mary Pickford and her company, who have come to the Hippodrome to play 'The World We Live In,' the success comedy at the Hippodrome, will be in the audience made noise to indicate they recognized them."

BRONCHO BUSTERS FIND RODEO DINNER REAL FUN
Cowgirls Insist Upon Wearing Fifth Avenue Frocks to Mrs. Hamilton's Party, but Tex Austin Thinks Grub Up to Plains Standard.

The magnificent boots of Tex Austin reposed beneath the table in Mrs. William Pierce Hamilton's dining room, 32 East Fifty-sixth street, last night, with Tex himself tucked into them. Mrs. Hamilton was entertaining Tex and ten of the prize winning cowboys and cowgirls who are to star in the rodeo that begins tomorrow in Madison Square Garden.

The receipts from the sale of the boxes for eight of the nine days of the rodeo are to go to the Argentine Association of America, which cares for orphans of French soldiers. Mrs. Hamilton is chairman of the rodeo special committee of the association. Therefore, she was entertaining Tex and his best ropers, broncho busters and bulldozers, among whom were Frank McCarroll, boss bulldozer, of Garden City, Kan., and proprietor of two full blown cauliflower ears, and Mike Hastings, the Pendleton, Ore. cattle master, who flung thirteen steers on the ropes a couple of months ago in fewer than thirteen seconds each. Incidentally one or two of the steers hurled Mike on his own nose.

SWAPPED HIS WIFE FOR A USED FLIVVER
Update Man Then Lost Car by Mortgage Default.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 2.—After swapping his wife with Grover Coant of Fulton, N. Y., for a second hand Ford car, spare tire and pump, Fred R. Woodruff of this city lost the automobile because he failed to keep up payments on the $40 mortgage held by a relative of the spouse he bartered away.

Woodruff was living in Fulton when the exchange was made. Coant visited him one evening in the machine. The men sat talking on the porch and Woodruff expressed the wish to own a car. Coant proposed the swap and Woodruff agreed. Both went inside and told Mrs. Woodruff. She consented and went away with Coant. A few days later all three signed this agreement: "I have signed my wife to Grover Coant for his Ford touring car and all the contents thereof, including one tire, one pump and all the tools in the car at the present time. I let all bonds drop on my ex-wife." (Signed) "Frank R. Woodruff, Grover Coant, Nedra Woodruff."
